The basic definition of Essay is 'to try' or 'to attempt'. In this paper a candidate is supposed to write his thoughts on a given topic in roughly 12-13 pages. Although definition wise it looks simple but some candidates struggle to put their thoughts in a structured manner and some don't even able to write given pages.

YOU DREAM WE MENTOR

Essay is one area where the scope of innovative way of writing is limitless. But to venture in this field proper nurturing is required.

- SOMP has helped so many candidates to remove their fear of essay writing and further have helped candidates to improve their scores.
- At SOMP we believe that Mentor led sessions are the best ways to learn any skills faster and the same we will do in the Essay program.
- The themes are chosen on the basis of UPSC previous year questions. These are umbrella themes which will cover almost every topic of the Essay asked in the UPSC Mains.
- The theme based sessions are designed in such a way that in a single session almost 4-5 different essays are being covered. In the Philosophical essays mainly UPSC focuses on the Spirituality, positive human values and negative human values

- For ex : An umbrella theme is Purposeful way of living
- UPSC in previous year have asked following essays on the above topic.
- 1. Youth is a blunder, manhood a struggle, old age a regret. (1994)
- 2. Useless life is an early death. (1994)
- 3. Disinterested intellectual curiosity is the lifeblood of civilisation. (1995)
- 4. Our deeds determine us, as much as we determine our deeds. (1995)
- 5. Be the change you want to see in others. (2013)
- 6. Attitude makes habit, habit makes character and character makes a man. (2007)
- 7. Discipline means success, anarchy means ruin. (2008)
- 8. Joy is the simplest form of gratitude. (2017)
- 9. A good life is one inspired by love and guided by knowledge. (2018)
- Etc

In the similar manner all major umbrella themes will be discussed and covered in the course.
